Chapter # 17: "Coffee is Food"

I can't hear!

What
the hell?

Go find them, super cute, and

Do you know what I hate most in this world? It's TV shows about

Why aren't you saying anything?
Say the truth
or a lie, or something.
Can't you at least say something?

If you know,
you know.
If you don't know,
you don't, if you can or you can't. The judges are starting to suspect something, because of their curiosity, just make us all less impudent!

Just lie to me...

Have come here to study our friendly management and innovation.
All of you have only just been clearing dreams, however,

this is a replacement project. Not fantasy but reality.
From this moment,
you will be trained at this institute.

If the business resource managers and owners are disappointed, they will be left an impression of being deceived.

This whole day has seemed like a big dream—I think I'm going to faint.

Don't be there
all day, now.

So it
initially happens to prefer inspiring frameworks.

rather than individual success to be more beneficial for the company, it's an
"implicit requirement"
to do so.

What is
this...
the difference
with the others?
It's no making one!

totally agree ~

Let's listen a bit more

I have to find out just what kind of kind I have under my foot...

Selling rice cookers,
selling shoes,
selling farm products,
selling razors. A sales person must to the end have the intent to sell.

Whether
the development of technology, or the development of a new character, whatever the production may be, the developer must
to the end have the intent to develop.

This is something that not everyone can do

PT/9 : Knowing he wants to find out what kind of people they are Firstly!

We have no other people.

The important thing is this.
They need developing,
marketing, selling,
and more than anything creating,
promoting, and selling online.

I see.
The company is trying to lose online. Is that how the company has created its new strength in the past?

The second point is also very important, Understand and remember this.

We need the people who can make this a great company.

Second Condition is End

Remember:
Each group should follow their schedule

You must all assemble a planning meeting where you should all participate

What is he talking about?

What does he think it?

This really,
I think this is really terrible

Let's
just hope we get something

MUMBLE

MUMBLE

What is it all?

And as for all the new recruits, they will be represented as students, the applicants will be listed at the program so please have a look at them before coming this.

We will end
off for today with the student selection

The feeling of coffee?
Do you even know what kind of company you've been hired at?

Coffee itself has slowly begun to grow awareness in society

Rather than what you say, this is more close to the truth, but I do not know if my childish thought will follow me...

You did not think to realize that I have found something great.

Some day dress (???)
will be achieved!!

What are... you talking
about...?

That is this? She seems a bit hostile .

Ah!
Perhaps?
There was a Wound
among the students
I remember her had no unusual last name...

So that's how it was.
This whole thing
began because of that?

This girl...

What
is... the matter?

Well who is this?
Isn't it the crazy coffee cat?

Wait...
How does
cat represent?
Would you like to have a drink?

What? She's on Song Heek's list? Then she's just getting more and more annoying but...!

Ah...
I'm saved...
